

Thomas M. Cohen
Department of History
The Catholic University of America
Washington, D.C. 20016
E-mail: cohent@cua.edu

EDUCATION

Stanford University
History, Ph.D. 1990, M.A. 1985

Amherst College
History, B.A. 1979

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Religious and cultural history of the early modern Iberian world; comparative history of European empires; Christian-Jewish relations, 1500-1800; modern Texas history and politics

Current research:

Biography of Frances T. (“Sissy”) Farenthold (1926-2021), human rights advocate and former Texas state legislator and gubernatorial candidate
Jews, New Christians, and Jesuits in the Early Modern World

Teaching: undergraduate lecture courses and colloquia on world history from the late Roman empire to ca. 1750, colonial and modern Latin America, early modern Europe, New World chronicles, the U.S. in the twentieth century, life writing in the U.S., and Latinos in the U.S.; graduate colloquia and seminars on theories of empire, early modern Christian missions, the comparative history of European empires, and Iberian, Latin American and Latino political, intellectual, and religious history

BOOKS

Co-author (with Hannah Luisa Cohen-Fuentes), Sissy Farenthold: A Biography (forthcoming)

Editor (with Jay T. Harrison and David Rex Galindo), The Franciscans in Colonial Mexico (Oceanside, CA/Norman, OK: University of Oklahoma Press and Academy of American Franciscan History, 2021)

The Fire of Tongues: António Vieira and the Missionary Church in Brazil and Portugal (Stanford University Press, 1998)

EDITED

JOURNALS

Editor (with Stuart B. Schwartz), António Vieira and the Luso-Brazilian Baroque, special issue, Luso-Brazilian Review 40:1 (Summer 2003)

Editor (with Dain Borges), Reflections on Culture and Ideology in the Americas: Essays in Honor of Richard M. Morse, special issue, Luso-Brazilian Review 32:2 (Winter 1995)

ARTICLES AND REVIEWS

“Apresentação,” in Richard M. Morse, Cidades e Cultura Política nas Américas, ed. Beatriz H. Domingues (Belo Horizonte, Brazil: Editora UFMG, 2017)

Co-author (with Emanuele Colombo), “Jesuit Missions,” in Hamish Scott, ed., The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern History, c. 1350-1750 (2 vols., Oxford University Press, 2015) II: 254-279

“A admissão de minorias raciais e étnicas na Companhia de Jesus, 1540-1773, in João Adolfo Hansen, Adma Muhana and Hélder Garmes, ed., Estudos sobre Vieira (São Paulo: Ateliê Editorial, 2012)

“Minorías raciales y étnicas en la Compañía de Jesús,” in Julián Lozano Navarro, ed., Conflictividad y conflictividades en el universo barroco (Granada: Editorial Universidad de Granada, 2010)

“Jesuits and New Christians: The Contested Legacy of St. Ignatius,” in Studies in the Spirituality of Jesuits 42/3 (Autumn 2010) 1-46

“Clerical Matters,” in Company 26:3 (2009) 10-13; reprinted in Jivan (Gujarat, India)

“Racial and Ethnic Minorities in the Society of Jesus,” in Thomas Worcester, ed., The Cambridge Companion to the Jesuits (Cambridge University Press, 2008) 199-214